WETS DEMAND LITIGATION TO PROVE COUNT

Each Side Watching
Other as Irregularity
Returns Give Drys
Lead.

Columbus, O., Nov. 10.—With the unofficial result on ratification of the federal prohibition amendment indicating a dry majority of 681, it appeared today that litigation will be instituted to determine the final result.

Today, the wets are watching the election machinery in Muskingum county for the purpose of equipping themselves with possible evidence in the event they bring suit to have the courts canvass the vote cast for and against ratification. Dry leaders, it is said, are following a similar program in Hamilton county.

While it appears that the wets will force litigation, it is claimed here that if the official returns, yet to be received at Secretary of State Smith's office from Hamilton, Mahoning, Muskingum, Mercer and Pike counties result in an apparent wet majority, the drys will ask the courts to canvass the vote.

Wet leaders assert that, as a result of no mark of identification on the back of ballots, election officials in Champaign county on election day opened marked ballots in order to tell what box to drop them into.

If the contention of the wets that this invalidated all votes cast on the ratification proposal in Champaign county is sustained by the courts, it is said, the wets would win with the small majority of 57. Champaign county is credited with a dry majority of 738 votes.

Should the drys institute litigation, it is reported, they will base their request on some of the mistakes reported from Hamilton and Cuyahoga counties which favor the wets.

U. S. WILL RATIFY PEACE COVENANT BY END OF WEEK

Washington, Nov. 10.—The prediction repeatedly voiced by Republican leaders of the senate that this week would see final action at last on ratification of the German peace treaty, caused Tuesday Nov. 18, to be fixed as a tentative date today for adjournment of the first session of the sixty-sixth congress.

Senator Hiram Johnson, California, one of the unyielding foes of the treaty, said he anticipated ratification with reservations before the end of the week. He regards the proposed reservations as "worthless," he said.

The senate was to take up today majority reservation covering the bitterly disputed article 10 of the league covenant. Under this reservation the United States would assume "no obligation to preserve the territorial obligations or political influence of any other country or to interfere in controversies between nations—whether members of the league or not—under the provisions of the article.

The reservation also provides that the United States would not be obliged to employ its military or naval forces "under any article of the treaty for any purpose," unless congress, by its constitutional right to declare war, authorizes the use of American forces in a foreign land by act or joint resolution.

XENIA FURNISHED ROSES FOR QUEEN OF BELGIUM.

Xenia furnished the roses that the Queen of Belgium carried on her recent pilgrimage to Cincinnati.

This has just become known through negotiations between Geo. Lampert of the Lampert Floral Company and a Cincinnati customer.

The Cincinnati dealer told Mr. Lampert that a recent order that he rushed through was for the Queen and that she carried the flowers in the parade in Cincinnati. The bouquet was made up of the queen's favorite kind of roses.

BEGIN WORK OF DEPORTING RED LEADERS

Undesirable Aliens Caught in Government Dragnet Will be Ousted Through Activities Of Department.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Proceedings for deportation of undesirable aliens, caught in the government dragnet, were under way today at the direction of the attorney general and the department of justice.

The attorney general has given orders to all district attorneys to expedite the handling of the cases. Every effort will be made to deport many of the aliens within a week.

The dragnet is still out and department of justice officials declared that the work of purging the nation of alien radicals with revolutionary motives, will continue just so long as there remain any of that class in the country. The campaign at present is directed against the Union of Russian Workers, but officials stated today that there is evidence against other organizations of a similar nature and that they will be proceeded against. The manifesto published by the "Federation of Unions of Russian Workers of the United States and Canada," made public here today indicated the most radical designs of this organization.

All But 35 Released

New York, Nov. 10.—Only 35 of the 500 persons arrested by the federal, state and city officials in the raid on 73 communist headquarters in Greater New York on Saturday night were held by the authorities today for further examination in the nation wide crusade against Bolshevik sympathizers. All of the others were released. The officials were said to be planning further raids.

Among the 25 tons of anarchistic literature seized in the second series of raids Saturday night in Manhattan, Brooklyn and the Bronx were said to be revolutionary appeals from Nicholas Lenin, the red dictator of Russia.

Officials declared that investigation of the literature showed that there are between 7,500 and 8,000 members of the communist party living in or near New York and that all are liable to arrest.

The communist officials said, believe in "ownership of everything by the people."

SEE WAY OUT FOR LEWIS IN RECALL OF MINE STRIKE ORDER

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 10.—The movements of Frank J. Hayes, president of the United Mine Workers, cast an air of mystery about the conference of union leaders called here today to act upon federal Judge Anderson's order commanding the recall of the miners' strike call.

Although the union executive was not registered at the downtown hotel, the report was current that Hayes is in the city and he might figure prominently in the conference. Other union officials professed to be ignorant of the movements of their executive who has been in Colorado recovering from nervous breakdown.

That Hayes, who had no part in the framing of the strike order, could intervene and rescind the strike order thus allowing John J. Lewis, acting president to retire from his predicament with good grace, is apparent.

As the situation stands, Lewis is confronted with the possibility of a jail or prison term if he defies the courts. If he recedes from his defiant stand he faces loss of prestige in the ranks of labor.

If Hayes, however, should take over the reins, recall the strike, Lewis becomes relieved of this ticklish position.

TOLEDO CARS LEAVE TOWN PUBLIC WALKS

Rail Company Moves Its Conveyances Beyond City Limits, Following Fight With People.

Toledo, O., Nov. 10.—Today felt the full force of withdrawal of street railway transportation facilities.

Thousands going to work this morning were forced to walk or make use of some form of motor transportation hastily pressed into service.

Over Sunday the full seriousness of the situation was not apparent but with resumption of business today the crippled condition of transportation became an important factor.

The withdrawal of all street cars from the city at midnight Saturday night came as a culmination of a 12-year franchise and on the heels of official notification by the city board of election to officials of the Toledo Railways and Light company that the voters of the city had approved the ordinance passed some time ago by the city council.

Mayor Cornell Schrieber assumed charge of the unprecedented situation and has appointed E. A. Mallory, commissioner of transportation. He assumed full charge of motor transportation in the city this morning, establishing zones of operation and a system of uniform charges.

Word came to the city officials today from Henry L. Doherty, president of the traction company that service would be resumed when "the people promise to behave."

The city is expected to decide upon litigation today and Mayor Schrieber has promised swift action in dealing with the situation.

WORST CRISIS IN HISTORY SINCE ROME FELL, NOW

The world is facing the worst crisis since the downfall of Rome.

Three agencies must combine to make the only remedy to combat the situation, legislation, education and religion.

John C. Acheson, president of the Pennsylvania College for Women, and former Xenian, emphasized these thoughts in his address "The Foundation of Civilization" to a large congregation at the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning.

There must be righteous laws, faithfully enforced. The schools must train the hand, the head and the heart. The religion of Christ must above all rule in the hearts of lives of men, said Dr. Acheson.

Dr. Acheson spoke again at the evening service at the church, his theme being "Conservation of the Boy." He made a plea for the boy in the home, the school and the church.

Dr. Acheson, who was a member of the First Presbyterian congregation when he lived here, was greeted by a large number of his old friends and schoolmates, who gathered to hear him at both morning and evening services.

As well as being a prominent educator, he is recognized as a leading thinker. During the war he was sent to Europe as the member of a government commission to study war work by the various agencies, and traveled through the war zone in France and Belgium.

BREAK IN RANKS OF OHIO MINERS STARTS

Steubenville, O., Nov. 10.—The first break in the hitherto solid ranks of the 40,000 union miners in Ohio came today when 75 of the 140 miners at the High Shaft mine of the Steubenville Coal and Mining company returned to work at the old scale.

Pickets failed to stop the men from entering the mine despite the fact that general clashes occurred and four shots were fired from ambush at the returning miners. Police and deputies on the scene prevented the clashes from taking a serious turn.

Three hundred shovel men employed by coal stripping companies in Jefferson county refused to obey the order of the International Brotherhood of Shovelmen to quit work in sympathy with the miners. They voted unanimously at Parlett, Adena, Smithfield station and Harmon to remain at work.

KING DISCLOSES QUICK WIT DURING VISIT TO FRISCO CLUB

"This is our card room," said the Judge when they reached the sanctum.

Coal Strike Developing Into Issue of Organized Labor Against Government

COUNTRY FACES MOST SERIOUS CRISIS IN HISTORY AS SPLIT IN LABOR APPEARS PROBABLE

Washington, Nov. 10.—The administration takes the stand that the coal strike issue is sharply drawn. If it recedes from the position taken, the radical group now seeking to dominate in the United States will rule and that henceforth decrees of government and decisions of its courts will be scorned or obeyed at will.

If it pursues its course, as it insists it not only will but must, it may meet with considerable opposition, but ultimately, backed by the conservatives in labor and by public opinion at large, it will make its authority paramount in the land.

Such is the government's contention.

Here in Washington it is considered that the situation is far from cheerful. The country is divided into two hostile camps. The interior situation of the United States has been likened to what the situation was in Europe in July 1914, a few weeks before the great war burst upon the world.

The industrial Sarajevo, observers here point out, has been passed. The day of ultimatums has arrived.

The most hopeful sign which leaders seem to see here is the split which they profess to discern within the camp of labor itself. It is asserted that ultimately, reinforced by the march of events, the conservatives will win the day.

Numerically the radicals are said to be in the majority among the leaders. And the conservatives are handicapped by the fact they cannot take advantage of the attitude of the government at present to strengthen their case lest they be accused of siding with the "enemy" and thus losing out altogether.

Republicans as well as Democrats seem to be of the opinion that the federal government has crossed the Rubicon and, whether it will or not, and whether the battle be long or short, hard or facile, it must go on to a decision.

The vast majority of both parties have announced themselves as behind the administration in what they term the "fight for law and order."

The general impression in Washington therefore seems to be that the nation has reached one of the most serious crises in its history and that the next 48 hours only can tell which way the country is heading—whether calm reasoning will prevail, or whether the people are in for a spell of troublesome times.

LOCAL COAL DEALERS SPEND SUNDAY UNLOADING CARS FOLLOWING ORDERS

Following an order which was received late Saturday night to disregard the Sunday holiday, and unload all cars placed on their sidings, local coal dealers employed forces of men who worked all day yesterday emptying cars of coal delivered to them.

Notice that the embargo to certain classes of consumers, the army and navy, public utilities, state and county, and to retail dealers, had been lifted, was received Friday afternoon.

At that time there were 35 loaded cars of coal in the local Pan Handle railroad yards. Only three of them were consigned to local dealers. The rest of them were for retail dealers in other places, and were placed in motion for their destination as soon as possible. Only one or two cars were in the Baltimore and Ohio yards here.

Late Saturday night an order was telephoned to local dealers to unload all cars on their sidings the following day even though the day was Sunday.

With the embargo lifted, cars which were held up in transit are being delivered rapidly to local dealers, and the proposition to get them unloaded within twenty-four hours, according to an order which was recently made by the railroads, is serious.

The embargo against coal deliveries was in effect about seven days. It is still effective as far as manufacturers are concerned.

Presidential Race Not On Docket Today

Chicago, Nov. 10.—Republican national committeemen from a score or more states, here for a "love fest" with National Chairman Will H. Hays today, "will not discuss presidential candidates." Hays explained that the meeting today was to be a "get together meeting only" and that presidential possibilities would not be discussed.

It is persistently rumored that an effort to decide on the location of the coming national convention will be made today. St. Louis is hot after the convention but those in a position to know say the Republicans will meet in Chicago to select their next candidate for president of the United States.

WOMAN LOSES HER VOTE RATHER THAN GO INTO A BARBER SHOP.

Brooklyn, Nov. 10.—On election day a woman in the Flatbush section of this city refused to go into a barber-shop to cast her vote. She appeared at a Presbyterian church in Flatbush where the voting place of the Second Election District of the Eighteenth Assembly District was located. She was told to go to a nearby barber shop.

"You shouldn't require a woman to go into a barber shop where men are being shaved," she replied indignantly. "I will vote here and you can send the ballot there for me."

When told that this could not be done the woman walked away declaring that she wouldn't vote at all.

SEA TRAGEDIES ARE REPORTED WITH LOSS OF LIFE UNDETERMINED

Boston, Mass., Nov. 10.—Loss of the United States shipping board steamer, Polarland, with the crew of 50 men in life boats being sought, four other steamships in distress, a schooner wrecked off Portland, Maine, and the wreckage of another schooner washed ashore at Scituate, Mass., gave evidence today of several sea tragedies.

A wireless message received at the naval radio station here told of the plight of the Polarland. A call for help was intercepted by the high powered naval wireless station at Ottercliff's Me., and was relayed to Boston.

Wreckage of the schooner bearing number 216,8192 was washed ashore at Plum Cove, Scituate, Mass. Marines thought it was part of the schooner Lochaela from Philadelphia. The wreckage was the top of a vessel's cabin. It had been recently painted. The name "C. Cadman" was written in pencil on the wood. Word was received today that the Gloucester fishing schooner Natalie Hammond was seriously damaged in the gale and had put into Liverpool, N. H.

GENTLEMEN BURGLARS GET LOOT, BUT LEAVE NOTE OF EXPLANATION

"Just to show you how easy it is for us to get in, Good bye for this time."

"John Jenkins."
"Jim Jenkins."
Emulators of raffles who robbed the store of H. E. Schmidt & Co., Saturday night, left this note on the desk in the store, after they had made away with anywhere from $10 to $100 worth of goods.

The burglary was discovered about 12 o'clock Sunday noon by Ernest Schmidt, who entered the store and saw that a rear door was standing open, later discovering the note with its bold contents. A survey of the store Monday was futile in determining the actual extent of the loss, and Mr. Schmidt placed it at between $10 and $100.

The burglars made their entrance by forcing two double doors, on an area way in the rear. They limmed the outside doors, which were caught with a lock and both floor and top catches, and then broke the lock of the inner sliding door, and pushed it to one side.

A number of boxes of cigars and some chewing tobacco was missed along with edibles, the extent of which can not be determined. The cash register which contained about $13 which was taken in after the money was put in the safe, was not disturbed, due probably to the fact that it is inclosed in an office cage and also probably to the fact that it is near the front door.

HUNTERS FINED.

For hunting rabbits out of season, Mac Baker and Andrew Darling, of this city, were fined $25 and costs amounting to $35 in each case, by Magistrate J. E. Jones Saturday afternoon. The men were arrested by Deputy Game Warden A. D. Mustard while hunting on the farm of County Commissioner George N. Parrill on the Columbus Pike.

LABOR REPLY TO MANDATE SHOWS TEETH

While Letter of Law is Obeyed to Rescind Order
Support of All Labor is Promised.

BULLETIN.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 10.—Sentiment in the conference of miners' officials here today is strongly in favor of calling off the strike of the coal miners in compliance with the court order issued here Saturday. This developed this afternoon when a "leak" appeared in the closely guarded conference.

Washington, Nov. 10.—The coal strike situation today assumed every aspect of a fight to a finish.

With the executive council of the Federation of Labor denouncing the government's course in the strike situation and calling upon the public to fight "autocratic" procedure, the situation today came perilously near being one of organized labor against government.

Administration officials today were stunned by the carefully worded challenge of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor, but were calmly decided to await until the United Mine Workers of America had decided whether they shall abide by the court's decree and call off the strike or whether they shall defy the courts and the government.

The administration will take no steps until after Tuesday night, but there was every indication today that Attorney General Palmer will pursue the course laid out by the cabinet, for to let down now would be an acknowledgment that the government has been wrong and willing to acknowledge an injustice done to the miners. The carefully worded statement of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor still leaves the way clear for the strike leaders to obey the court's order, but it encourages a contest by promising the support of all labor.

The attitude of labor is set forth in these paragraphs of the declaration:

"We declare that the proceedings in this case are unwarranted, as they are in the history of our country, and we declare that it is an injustice which not only the workers but all liberty loving Americans will repudiate and demand redress. The citizenship of our country cannot afford to permit the establishment or maintenance of a principle which strikes at the very foundation of justice and freedom. To restore the confidence in the institutions of our country and the respect due to the courts, this injunction should be withdrawn and the records cleansed from so outrageous a proceeding."

Washington, Nov. 10.—The government will go ahead with its proceedings against the coal strike leaders.

The proclamation of the American Federation of Labor caused some surprise in administration circles, but it will have no effect on the pronounced policy of the federal government, according to officials here today.

It is considered that President Samuel Gompers, of the labor federation and his conservative followers, have lost control of the labor movement and that the radicals have swept the field.

It is being freely predicted here that a split in labor is not the remotest of possibilities.

On the other hand it is universally recognized here that labor realizes it is face to face with the greatest crisis in its history and is desperately determined to come out of its clash with the government as near whole as it can.

"The situation is in the hands of the court. The sovereignty of America must be upheld."

The statement was made at the White House today relative to the coal situation and the declaration of the American Federation of Labor in support of the strike.

President Wilson stands ready to appoint a tribunal for the settlement of the trouble if the miners comply with the order of the courts. It was announced at the White House. Until the order of the courts is complied with the situation will rest with the judiciary, it was stated.

One high official stated today that it appeared like "another Fort Sumter."

labor and its ever-increasing demands," Dr. Bacon says, "the way to bring down the high cost of living is to reduce the labor by taking every advantage of advances in science and engineering to do the things with a labor-saving device."

"One fundamental reason that labor is so costly and can afford to make such great demands is that there is a real shortage of labor. Almost any man willing to work can get a job at high wages. Even with the present high prices of coal the actual return to the mine owner probably does not average more than 25 cents a ton of bituminous coal. By utilizing the proposal of making gases from the coal in the ground the gaseous equivalent of a ton of coal probably could be delivered on top of the ground for a cost of 50 cents, including the 25 cent return to the owner of the mine."

Dr. Bacon admits that it will require great engineering skill and considerable experimental work to do this efficiently. One thing which has retarded such development in the past has been the ash or mineral matter in the coal which in time tends to choke combustion of the coal underground.

"This difficulty," he says, "probably can be overcome by operating small areas at a time. In fact, all the difficulties can be met, for the time is rapidly approaching when they must be met. The price of coal is a basic price for everything. High prices of coal mean high prices of all commodities. Carrying out the process on a large scale would reduce the price of coal and set free a large number of men for work in other industries."

Mrs. Ruth Scott was fortunate enough to secure one of the prizes a hand painted plate, and Dilver Belden was awarded the man's prize, a deck of cards in a leather case. The hostess served a salad course with coffee and small cakes.

When they reached home only a quart of the nuts remained. The rest had been sold by their enterprising young sons in small amounts for about the same price as their parents paid for them on their native health Expressage on the nuts hadn't been counted in by the young salesmen.

Hamilton Burglary Parallels Xenia One

Burglars, who backed a truck up to the rear of the Metropolitan clothing store of Hamilton, a branch of the Dayton store of that name, hauled away overcoats and suits valued at $8,000 sometime Saturday night.

The burglary is an exact parallel of the Hutchison and Gibney robbery in this city last winter, and of numerous other wholesale burglaries that terrorized merchants in Ohio about that time. At Hamilton 150 coats and 125 suits were taken valued at from $35 to $75 a piece.

The same night burglars entered the Model Laundry Company in Hamilton and secured shirts, underwear, overalls and handkerchiefs.

419 EGGS FROM 20 HENS IN 30 DAYS

Mr. Dougherty Got This Result in October. Plan is Easily Tried.

"I tried Don Sung and the results were far past any expectations. I got 419 eggs in 30 days from 20 hens while moulting. I think this is wonderful, as they hardly laid at all before while moulting."—Frank Dougherty, 5040 E. 11th St., Indianapolis.

Mr. Dougherty bought $1 worth of Don Sung tablets in October and wrote the above letter in November. Figure his profit on 35 dozen eggs from hens that formerly laid little or nothing.

This may sound too good to be true, but it costs nothing to find out. We'll make you the same offer we made him. Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, tell us and your money will be promptly refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) works directly on the egg-laying organs, and is also a splendid tonic. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health, makes her more active in any weather, and starts her laying.

Try Don Sung for 30 days and if it doesn't get you the eggs, no matter what the weather, your money will be refunded by return mail. Get Don Sung from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer or send 50 cents for a package by mail prepaid. Burrell-Dugger Co., 284 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

HEADACHE

Caused by

Acid-Stomach

Yes, indeed, more often than you think. Because ACID-STOMACH, starting with indigestion, heartburn, belching, food-repelling, bloating and gas, if not checked, will eventually affect every vital organ of the body. Severe, burning, splitting headaches are, therefore, of frequent occurrence as a result of this set condition.

Take EATONIC. It quickly banishes acid-stomach with its sour bloating, pain and gas. It aids digestion—helps the stomach get full strength from every mouthful of food you eat. Millions of people are miserable, weak, sick and ailing because of ACID-STOMACH. Poisons, created by partly digested food charged with acid, are absorbed into the blood and distributed throughout the entire system. This often causes rheumatism, biliousness, cirrhosis of the liver, heart trouble, ulcers and even cancer of the stomach. It robs its victims of health, undermines the strength of the most vigorous.

If you want to get back your physical and mental strength—be full of vim and vigor—enjoy life and be happy, you must get rid of your acid-stomach.

In EATONIC you will find the very help you need and it's guaranteed. So get a big box from your druggist today. If it fails to please you, return it and he will refund your money.

THE BOSTON POLICE STRIKE REBUKED.

The election of Governor Coolidge in Massachusetts was a splendid endorsement of his stand for law and order in the case of the strike of Boston policemen. The result proves that the American people regardless of politics are willing to abide by the orderly processes of law and have no sympathy with the attitude of those who would violate their oaths of office in an attempt to gratify personal desires. No man is too high or too humble to bow to the majesty of the law which aims to protect all alike and whose processes are accessible to all.

The great issue in the United States today is the supremacy of the people's law, and there is no room in America for those who would spread the doctrines of unrest, anarchy, bolshevism and lawlessness for the purpose of undermining our civilization and overthrowing a government founded in sacrifice and upheld and maintained for more than a century by the sacred blood of those who appreciated the fact that here is located an asylum for mankind where all men are declared to be created equal in the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness—a government of the people, for the people and by the people.

Tuesday's election in Massachusetts gives increased assurance to America that the principles enunciated in the Declaration of Independence are not idle words and increases their confidence in the declaration that this government shall not perish from the earth. The people of Massachusetts, the birthplace of American liberty, are to be congratulated for giving to the nation in so emphatic a manner this evidence that those who hold the law lightly are not to be encouraged in their acts.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

BY JANE PHELPS.

A Happy and Unexpected Surprise CHAPTER XCV.

I couldn't get that woman out of my mind for days. It seemed so pitiful. No wonder she felt hard, and looked hard too. I shivered as I thought how I would feel if I had to listen to Everett calling for some woman he loved and he had died with her name on his lips. It was horrible. I made up my mind never to "play" with human hearts, as that woman had put it—to be fair and square in all I did. For the first time I had no wish to be like Leola. That was killed forever. I still longed for her fascinations, but only to make my husband love me better, not to use to make him jealous. That unhappy creature who had travelled across the ocean to upbraid Leola, had effectually killed any admiration I had for the first Mrs. Graham.

Someway, too, it made me feel more tolerant of Everett. If he knew these things, he had suffered. If he had not known them, he was to be pitied because she had made her position as his wife a cover for her flirtations.

"Would you like to take Miss Lane and the baby and go home for a couple of weeks?" Everett asked me soon after this experience.

"Why—yes."

"Because I hated to leave you alone," I answered truthfully.

"I beg your pardon, dear. I imagined it was because of Miss Lane."

"No—I would not dare travel alone with Junior," I said, all unconscious that I was admitting the wisdom of his decision to retain Miss Lane.

"Then you can plan to leave Saturday. I shall be very busy for the time you are away, could be at home perhaps but little. I thought it a good time for you to make your people a visit."

What a fuss father and mother and the boys made over Junior! Really, Miss Lane had to give in to mother, occasionally and she was a bit more likeable than when we left home. All my girl friends came to see me, and to admire baby. All but Rose; I missed her dreadfully. Her mother came over, and from what she said I knew she had no idea that Rose was unhappy. She talked of soon going to Chicago on a visit.

"I hope she will not go," I said to mother.

"Why dear? That isn't a very nice wish."

"Rose isn't happy, mother. If she goes she will be horribly distressed."

"I'm very sorry. Runaway marriages seldom turn out well. But we must hope for the best. Perhaps her mother may be able to help her."

I doubted it, but as I felt I had no right to discuss Rose's affairs even with mother, I said no more.

The two weeks fairly flew by. Then one morning came a letter from Everett telling me when to return. That was like him. He seemed to think it perfectly right to order my life as he wished. Strangely, this time I did not rebel, although I was having a wonderful time.

There had been a sort of suppressed excitement in Everett's manner when he planned my visit that had excited my curiosity. It was different from anything I ever before had noticed in him, and so I was ready to return without grumbling.

Dad wanted to wire him we couldn't come; that he was going to keep his grandson another week. But I laughed at him and persuaded him not to be so foolish. Mother joined with me, although she longed for us to remain. "We must do nothing to interfere father," she said. "We cannot live their lives for them, but we can at least keep from meddling," and father as usual, gave in.

It was a lovely day when we arrived in Hendon. Everett met us at the train, and seemed delighted to see me as well as the baby. To my surprise he had that same air of suppressed excitement he had had when I went away, only now it was even more noticeable.

"What has happened, Everett? I know there is something by your manner."

"Wait and see," was all he would

YOU NEED NOT SUFFER FROM CATARRH

But You Must Drive It Out of Your Blood.

Catarrh is annoying enough when it chokes up your nostrils and air passages, causing difficult breathing and other discomforts. Real danger comes when it reaches down into your lungs.

This is why you should at once realize the importance of the proper treatment, and lose no time experimenting with worthless reme-lies which touch only the surface. To be rid of Catarrh, you must drive the disease germs out of your blood.

Splendid results have been reported from the use of S. S. S., which acts on the catarrh germs in the blood.

If you wish medical advice as to the treatment of your own individual case, write to Chief Medical Adviser, 42 Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.

Big Lot of Hay Fever Jokes

But Kentucky Man Says—People Who Belong to Hay Fever Colony are Kidding Themselves.

Wouldn't Be Any Rose or Hay Fever if Simple Home Remedy Was Given a Chance.

"Yes, there's a real NINETY-NINE per cent effective remedy for hay or rose fever," frankly states a druggist in a prosperous Kentucky city. "But I don't expect anyone to believe me, because the treatment is so easy and the cost not worth mentioning."

"The annual crop of hay-fever jokes would be mighty scarce if people would get an ounce of Mentholized Arcline and by just adding water that has been boiled make a pint of liquid that will prove a real help to all who suffer."

"Many of my hay-fever friends tell me that by starting to gargle and sniff or spray the nostrils a few times a day the expected severe attack often fails to appear and in cases where it does show up is very mild and does not annoy."

"The Better Class of Pharmacists" who dispense Mentholized Arcline say it will greatly modify any attack even when taken three or four days after hostilities begin.

Go to a real live druggist when you get ready to make a pint.

"FRIENDLY ENEMIES" COMES TO OPERA HOUSE

"Friendly Enemies," considered one of the greatest comedies of modern writing, endorsed by President Wilson for the sentiment it expresses, will be presented by A. N. Woods at the Xenia opera house Thursday evening.

The production is the second to be brought here under the management of the Standard Amusement Company, which is setting out to book only the best quality shows for the benefit of Xenia theater goers.

The fame of "Friendly Enemies," has spread far and wide so that it needs but a word of comment. The growth in popularity of the production has been pronounced since President Wilson stood up in a theater in Washington, D. C., and publicly endorsed the production and the sentiment of the plot.

Failed in Himself.

When you meet a howler who blames his environment, his generation, his fellows, his country, you find a man who has failed in himself.

High School Notes

An assembly was held Thursday in the interest of Good English Week. The program was prepared by Miss Elwell and some clever talent made its appearance. Elizabeth Galloway acted as chairman and announced the different parts of the program. First she gave a brief outline of the movement for better English. The Freshman Boy's Music Club was first on the program and they sang a parody on "Rally Round the Flag Boys," in which they made a plea to abolish slang and other impurities of our language. Four members of the Freshman class presented some clever rhymes which called for laughter on the part of their hearers. Pauline McFadden next sang a solo which was well received. "Who Killed Slang," an original little sketch proclaiming the Juniors as the ones who made slang bow in defeat was written by Margaret Webster and Sabina Ross and read by the former. Tom Mason gave a creed for good English and Mary Wheeler chose as her contribution a poem "English or Slang." As the next number of the musical entertainment several Sophomore girls sang "Dixie Land." An original drama entitled "The Magic Voice," was pre-which the facts stated were the same English classes. The characters were: Young Americans, Dorothy Reutinger, Prof. Good English, Delmar Compton, Poor Speech, Wilfred Crow, A Foreigner, Leslie Moore, Uncle Sam, Willard Taylor, A Sailor, Ralph Highly, A Soldier, Ernest Randall, Efficiency, Martha Wilson.

The play introduced the young Americans being enticed from Good English by Poor Speech against the protest of Prof. Good English and only realizing their folly when Uncle Sam heeding the pleadings of the professor calls a soldier and sailor who drag out Poor Speech.

The assembly closed with the singing of America by the school led by Miss Haynes.

Miss Armstrong's English class inaugurated a unique and interesting feature by making Thursday tag day. Anyone using slang or other bad expressions before a Freshman was punished by having a colored tag pinned to him. The Freshman boys seemed the most frequent offenders and several of them rivalled Joseph and his many colored coat.

R. S. Kingsbury addressed the girls of the high school after school asking their aid in Red Cross work Saturday.

Lawrence Riddell entertained about twenty at his home on South Detroit street, Thursday night, in honor of the Misses Leah and Reba Bewley of Indiana who are visiting here. The evening was spent playing games and making candy.

BASKETBALL. Basketball this year looks very promising for Central High. While there were no regulars left from last year, we have some good material left from the first squad, Bales and LeSourd being the most promising. LeSourd is also captain this year. If our athletes from Spring Valley show up as well in basketball as they did in football, we shall have two very strong players added to the squad. The games booked for basketball this year are mainly teams of very strong caliber and the defenders of the Blue and White will have to step lively if they expect to seal up the championship for the southern part of the state.—Review.

COURT NEWS

For the second time the Court of Appeals has rendered a decision in favor of Charles S. Johnson in a suit to recover $10,000 damages, brought against him by Guy L. Harner.

The case first came up on a demurrer to the petition which was sustained by both the common pleas and court of appeals on the grounds that the facts stated did not constitute a cause of action.

An amended reply was filed in which the facts stated were the same as those originally set up. The case again went to the Appellate Court, which in its decision, received today, says: "Admission of the plaintiff that in the amended reply the same cause of action is set up, is sufficient to make as an undisputed fact, the defense of 'res adjudicata.'"

Alleging neglect of duty extreme cruelty and unfaithfulness Laura Bell Smith, has brought suit for divorce from Harrison Leon Smith. They were married July 17, 1915. She says that she bought all the furniture, supported herself, and part of the time supported the defendant.

Will the Influenza Return?

Public Health Authorities Predict its Recurrence

Guard Against it by Building Up the Blood

Pepto-Mangan Creates Rich Red Blood and Increases Strength

Surgeon General Blue, of the United States Public Health Service, in a recent statement from Washington, warns the public that the much-dreaded influenza epidemic will probably return this fall and winter. All medical authorities agree that the weak, bloodless, run-down individual is more likely to contract this (as well as any other infectious disease) than is the strong, robust, red-blooded man or woman. In view of these facts, it is wise to use every effort to build up the blood and thus increase the bodily resistance to the invasion of the germ of the disease. Gude's Pepto-Mangan is an absolutely dependable red-blood builder in all conditions of lowered vitality not due to serious disease of the vital organs. It improves the appetite, imparts color to the cheeks, and creates new hope and ambition in those who have become pale, weak, and listless. Physicians recommend Gude's Pepto-Mangan. When you order, be sure the word "Gude's" is on the package. Without "Gude's," it is not Pepto-Mangan. Furnished in both liquid and tablet form. For sale by all druggists. adv

SLEEP VANISHED WHEN HER NERVES WENT TO PIECES

But Repose and Other Blessings Came Back at Nerv-Worth's Bidding

And they come quickly—with the use of less than a bottle of Nerv-Worth. Here's the story, with the teller's name and address:

Nerv-Worth Co.—My nerves have been in a terrible condition. Could not do the smallest household duties nor sit down long enough to read the headlines of a paper. Sleepless and restless nights added greatly to my rundown condition.

I saw an advertisement for Nerv-Worth and I tried it. I began to feel relief before taking one bottle. I have told many others what it has done for me and I certainly could not be without it in the house.
